  - Nitya is an extremely personable and energetic coach. For starters, she makes you feel completely at ease which helps the conversation to flow effortlessly. Nitya is extremely skilled in drawing out the relevant information that will work for your advantage and her ability to put it in context within a workable structure is exemplary. She has been invaluable in helping me to define my goals, find my focus and most importantly my confidence. A very visual person, I have picked up some great tips on career management (present and future), time management and the ability to prioritise. What I received was more than I expected and I would highly recommend her – you will not regret it.
